

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, May 29

1997

Sessions' Aide Arch Galloway Visiting Marshall Center Thurs.

Arch Galloway, Military/NASA Legislative Aide to Sen. Jeff Sessions, is visiting Marshall Thursday. He will meet with Center management and be briefed about Marshall programs, including Space Shuttle Projects, X-33, Liquid Fly Back Booster, Space Sciences Lab activities, Microgravity Sciences, the Advanced X-ray Astrophysics Facility, Optics Systems and the International Space Station. Galloway will also tour the Space Station Manufacturing and Assembly Facility.

Noon Friday Is Deadline to Register for Golf Club Tournament

A&M President John Gibson Visiting, Touring Center Facilities

Alabama A&M University President Dr. John T. Gibson is visiting Marshall Thursday. He will meet with Center Director Dr. Wayne Littles, Deputy Director Carolyn Griner, Science and Engineering Director Sherman Jobe and Charles Scales, deputy director of Marshall's Equal Opportunity Office. He will also tour Center facilities. Gibson was named president of Alabama A&M in July 1996.